

The Key to More Access
How improved data and a single search-box can open the door to greater content

Friday 2 December 2011

- 10.15am Registration
The Geological Society, Burlington House, Piccadilly, London
- 10.30am Welcome and Introduction to Federated Search
Luis Carrasqueiro, Chief Executive, BUFVC
An introduction to the day and a look at the BUFVC federated search – an innovative ‘all-in-one’ search engine that enables users to access nine BUFVC databases containing over 13 million records, via a single entry point. The federated search beta was launched by the BUFVC in June 2011, as the result of an AHRC funded project.
- 10.45am ‘Joining up the Dots’
Project Manager, Shared Services
Building on the ‘Power of the VHS’ events, the BUFVC will reveal ambitious plans to join up television and radio holdings data held by both broadcasters & UK educational institutions with its own expanding integrated databases. The project is funded by HEFCE and will be another step closer to providing a ‘one-stop-shop’ for moving image and sound material.
- 11.15am Process vs Outcome?
Dr Justin Smith, Principal Lecturer, University of Portsmouth and Linda Kaye, Research Executive, BUFVC
Exploring new ways of integrating research and digitization in the AHRC research project, Channel 4 and British Film Culture.
- 11.45am Screening Europe – Europe on Screen
Eve-Marie Oesterlen, EUscreen Project Coordinator, BUFVC and Dr Sian Barber, Royal Holloway, University of London
The goals and challenges of monitoring standardised online access to Europe’s television heritage within the EUscreen project, plus launch of new EUscreen portal.
