

LEARNING ON SCREEN AWARDS JURY COMMENTS

Courseware and Curriculum In-House

Nominations

Forced Marriages and Honour Based Abuse

This film reveals the stories of three survivors of forced marriage and honour-based abuse - violent crimes committed to defend the honour of the family. Through interviews the survivors share their experiences of abuse, endured at the hands of close relatives. The judges commented that it was an effective, thought provoking and well-constructed film.

Making Freedom

Designed to give an introduction to the subject of 'self liberation' at the start of the final week of a Future Learn course about slavery, this short lecture draws on the travelling exhibition of the same name. Judges praised its exploration of interesting content and the fascinating interactive map.

Poor Dorothy

Aimed at students studying criminology, policing and forensic science, this interactive resource covered a criminal investigation from its initial reporting up to court trial. Judges praised this film as an effective learning resource that would be useful to dissect in lessons.

Winner

Forced Marriages and Honour Based Abuse

A production that tackled important and challenging subject matter in a sensitive and informative way.
