College HE Student Production

Nominations

LOST

LOST is a journey of reflection and confusion, as an anonymous individual struggles to find what he is looking for. The judges found this film intriguing and compelling, with striking cinematography and an atmospheric use of music.

Mr Perfect

Mr Perfect was made to show how film can creatively support the written word and features an original poem and music at its heart. The judges commented on the good use of foley sound and atmospheric, expressionist feel.

Stars on Mars

Stars on Mars explores the dramatic potential of a televised Mars mission while satirising reality television. The judges praised the impressive set design, lighting, character-driven script and excellent performances.

Terminal Hospitality

Drawing inspiration from a comic book, Terminal Hospitality uses dark humour to explore violent obsession. The judges enjoyed the film's blackly comic script and praised its set design and mise en scène.

Winner

Mr Perfect

A highly creative film that featured impressive performances and original sound design.
