FE Student Production

Nominations

Binary

Binary is a short fiction about a boy and his mobile phone. The judges commented that this was a simple, elegant narrative well told with real humour and described it as having the production values of an undergraduate level piece.

Redemption

Displaying very high standards for FE level, the judges praised the sophisticated technical skills and filmmakers' solid understanding of the action genre. The judges noted the good performances and the care and preparation taken to choreograph the action sequences.

Winner

Binary

A well-crafted and witty film with a stinging twist in its tale...
