

LEARNING ON SCREEN AWARDS JURY COMMENTS

General Education Broadcast

Nominations

Exodus: Our Journey to Europe

This unique film gave cameras to refugees trying to enter Europe, after fleeing conflict, unrest and poverty. The film captures their voices and their experiences, offering a sobering and compelling experience for the audience.

My Hero: Jacqui Oatley and Kyra Balderstone

This honest and inspiring production follows aspiring sports presenter Kyra, who meets and works with professional sports commentator and presenter Jacqui Oatley. Judges commented that this aspirational production would encourage students with their own dreams and ambitions, and would be particularly useful in a teaching environment.

My Life: Marvellous Messy Minds

This insightful film aims to break down the stigma associated with mental illness by helping a young audience understand more about it. The judges commented on the bravery of the young people who were interviewed and praised the production's use of animation and music to address its target audience.

Secrets of the Brain: Memory

This entertaining production brings popular science content to viewers in an interactive and accessible way, inviting viewers to take part and put their own memories to the test. Judges praised the inclusivity of the production and the engaging contributors who provide fascinating insights into the workings of the brain.

Winner

Exodus: Our Journey to Europe

After much debate, the winner is a phenomenal production chosen for its unique approach to storytelling, and its sensitive handling of some challenging and distressing subject matter.